Description

A rare find, this well-built 4-bath, 4-bedroom home in Castillo de Arena on the southern East Cape is located 15-minutes drive south of famed UNESCO World Heritage Site - Cabo Pulmo National Marine Park. The house sits perched above the surrounding desert with 180 degree views of the Sea of Cortez. It is impeccably maintained and built by a master craftsman with 12-foot ceilings and oak finishes throughout, expert plumbing and solar-powered electrical installations, and is landscaped with desert vegetation including mature trees. Located a short drive from vast sandy beaches, the massive sand dune that the subdivision takes its name from and 1 hour from the Los Cabos International Airport. C
