Description

This brand-new, traditional-style home blends modern design with authentic Mexican charm. The residence features an open floor plan with double access to an expansive terrace, along with a spacious primary bedroom and ensuite bath. The kitchen is the heart of the home, where tradition and functionality blend into a warm and inviting space. With a central island, with talavera accents, that invites you to cook and share, this kitchen is perfect for those who love the art of cooking.

Situated on a corner lot, the property offers dual access points via the main garage and the rear of the home. The grounds are beautifully landscaped with lush, mature greenery.
