Description

Perched on a wild, sun-kissed cliffside overlooking the Gulf of California, Piedras Blancas is a rare and expansive coastal property spanning 41,507 m<sup>2</sup> (approx. 10.25 acres). This untouched parcel offers sweeping ocean views, dramatic natural beauty, and the kind of seclusion that only exists in Baja's most exclusive locations. With its commanding position above the water and vast, undeveloped terrain, this land is a blank canvas for a visionary developer—ideal for a luxury residential community, boutique eco-resort, or a private ultra-luxury estate.
