Description

This stunning home, built in 2020, is a masterful example of classic Mexican architecture--style and craftsmanship that truly never go out of fashion. With a blend of timeless design and exceptional quality construction, this home stands as a rare find in today's market. Designed and built by the renowned local architect Rafael del Toro, this home reflects quality construction that will withstand the test of time. It's a rare opportunity, as a home like this--built with such exceptional materials and craftsmanship--could not be replicated for the asking price given today's construction costs.
