Description

Casa Trapiche presents a unique opportunity to acquire a beautifully restored historic home in the heart of Todos Santos and complete it to your own taste. Originally built by one of the town's prominent sugar mill owners, the property reflects the character and craftsmanship of Baja's historic sugar-mill era.

The restoration is substantially complete, with approximately 70% of the work already finished. The home features two spacious bedrooms with soaring ceilings, custom-cut brick detailing, polished concrete floors, and a two-car carport with a large sliding garage gate. The remaining work primarily consists of finish selections and installation, including windows, doors, fixtures, cab
