Description

Where the Pacific becomes your private theater.

Perched on the cliffs of El Pedregal, Milichichi is a rare convergence of architectural precision and raw natural drama. From every level of this four-story residence, the Pacific stretches endlessly before you -- and during the season, whales breach and call close enough to hear from the comfort of your deck. This is not a view. This is an experience.

South-facing and privately positioned on a quiet, non-through street, the home bathes in sunlight from morning until dusk. The 44-foot saltwater pool and spa shimmer in uninterrupted warmth all day, framed by a firepit, outdoor shower, and the kind of effortless indoor-outdoor flow that rem
