Description

Welcome to Casa Portales, where thoughtful architecture and the natural beauty of Baja California Sur converge in this exceptional residence. Designed by architects Ana Victoria Pérez-Gil and Saúl Figueroa, this home is an exploration of spatial rhythm and connection, where clean architectural lines are softened by natural materials and the presence of a mature mango tree that anchors the design of the residence. Artisanal tile floors throughout the home, combined with warm wood accents and native stone, create interiors that feel both refined and grounded.

Located within La Huerta San Sebastián, an exclusive private enclave of just ten architecturally distinct residences, Casa Portales re
