Description

Newly completed two-story residence located in the Del Mar section of ALMAR Residencial, one of La Paz's most complete and thoughtfully planned private communities. Ideally situated just 5 minutes from the Malecón of La Paz, this home offers an excellent balance of location, comfort, and security. The architectural project was designed by Architect Artigas, and construction was carried out by a developer with extensive experience in residential projects at a national level. The residence features a contemporary and functional layout, with a clear separation between social areas on the main level and private areas on the upper level, making it ideal for families, retirees, or buyers seeking q
