Description

Tucked into the coveted hillside community of Gringo Hills in Costa Azul, Casa Asha is a contemporary residence by architect Gonzalo Elizarraras. Set on a 5195M lot, the three-bedroom home blends natural Baja materials with modern architecture, open living spaces, and expansive terraces. The upper-level living, dining, and kitchen flow to a generous terrace, while the lower level opens to a lush garden ideal for entertaining under the shade of mature trees. The rooftop offers a versatile space perfect for sunrise yoga, morning coffee, or a barbecue overlooking the Sea of Cortez. A brief 900-meters to the shores of Costa Azul and minutes from San José's historic center, Gringo Hills offers a
