Description

A 113,200 m² (27.97 acres) plot of land with extraordinary potential for diverse projects, including residential developments, single-family homes, industrial warehouses, shopping centers, and agri-food distribution.

The property stands out for its prime location in the city's natural growth corridor, just minutes from the La Paz-Cabo San Lucas highway. As a testament to its high appreciation potential, it is situated across the street from the Public Security Secretariat and a plot of land donated to the National Polytechnic Institute.

Due to its size, the property allows for strategic subdivision and gradual development, guaranteeing high long-term returns driven by the robust growth
