Description

A rare opportunity to acquire a residence in the charming town of Santa Cruz. Located just eight minutes from the expanding community of La Ribera, home to the Costa Palmas development. Current upgrades being done now include the installation of new tile flooring, fresh paint, and various other improvements. A block wall is currently being constructed for privacy by separating the property to the north. There is a large, separate structure suitable for the addition of a custom kitchen. The property sits on a spacious, open lot exceeding a quarter of an acre, offering ample space for a pool, additional parking, or other enhancements. Its strategic location provides excellent potential for com
