Description

Rare opportunity to own a large Cabo property in a prime location close to the highway, shopping, hospitals, and schools. This unique compound offers multiple buildings with room for expansion and incredible rental income potential. The main home is an authentic Cabo-style house at the center of the property. A separate casita can easily be converted into two condos, ideal for generating rental income. The property also includes a large garage and workshop, with a flat buildable pad above the garage--perfect for another home or condos with stunning views of downtown, Cabo Bay, and Land's End. Additional features include extra water storage, space for a garden, an emergency generator, ample
