Description

Rare 2,558 m2 homesite in Querencia - one of the widest in the community. Its proportions make possible what most lots here cannot: a residence with three ocean-view suites, a true central courtyard, pool & spa, and landscape wrapping the home on all sides. A complete architectural project - designed by a firm whose work has been published in Architectural Digest - has already been developed for this lot and is available upon request, offering a valuable head start. Located in La Montana, between the beach club and the golf club.
