Description

Punta Coyote | San Juan de la Costa, Baja California Sur

A rare 600-hectare (1800 total Available) coastal masterpiece just 52 km from La Paz, featuring over 5 miles of pristine Pacific shoreline and 1.73 km of direct beachfront. With 180° ocean and mountain views, this world-class development site is already in motion -- an active vineyard with a master winemaker is currently being planted, and multiple projects are set to break ground soon. The master plan includes a private FBO, deep-water marina, and luxury residential and resort uses. Solar, private well, and on-site power infrastructure are in place. Punta Coyote is Baja's most compelling large-scale investment opportunity.
