Description

What if every morning began with the sound of the sea and a view that reminded you why you chose to live here? Facing the ocean, on the seaside, in one of the most privileged locations in Cerro Colorado, there's a place where sunrises and sunsets cease to be a luxury and become part of your daily routine.

This exclusive boutique development, with only 40 apartments, offers the tranquility, privacy, and comfort you've always longed for. A home designed to make your life simpler, more relaxed, and much more enjoyable, surrounded by the natural beauty of San José del Cabo. Because there are places where you simply live... and others where you savor every moment.
