Description

Ladrillo Rojo is a rustic country property in the agricultural area of San Pedro, approximately a half-hour drive from La Paz. Located about ½ a km from the main highway, it offers easy access while enjoying the calm of the rural countryside. The lot is fully fenced, and both the wall and existing structures are built with traditional locally made red brick, giving the property warmth, character, and a strong sense of place. The home includes one bedroom, one bathroom, a rustic kitchen, and a covered patio for outdoor living. Water is already connected, and electricity is ready to be activated with a CFE contract. Mature fruit trees add charm, making this a very pretty property and a lovely
