Description

Perched above the shoreline at iconic Shipwrecks on the East Cape, this newly constructed Mexican contemporary home is a refined expression of design in harmony with nature. Built atop a natural sand dune, the residence was thoughtfully elevated to preserve the surrounding landscape while capturing sweeping views of the Sea of Cortez and the raw beauty of this unspoiled coastline. The home features 4 bedrooms and 5½ baths, with clean architectural lines, warm natural materials, and expansive walls of glass that dissolve the boundary between indoors and out. Living spaces flow effortlessly onto generous terraces for open-air lounging, dining, and entertaining, all framed by ocean breezes and
